Our goal this year is to have women from across the city to join us in an act of faith with a sacrificial gift to further enhance our work in women's ministry and outreach. Our colors for this weekend apricot and white.

May the remaining months of this year be a time of living even more powerfully under open Heavens, and may the cloud of His presence—His favor which brings true riches —release the latter rain upon you for a fresh time of harvest for you and your household!

May the brilliancy of the King's face continue to shine upon you,

In His Amazing Love,

First Lady Marcia J. Bolden
